The Paper Industry Gold Awards 2025

The 2025 Paper Industry Gold Awards, now in their fourth year, will take place on Tuesday, 17th June, at the historic Stationers' Hall, London. With an expected attendance of 150 industry professionals, this event has become a cornerstone in celebrating excellence within the UK's Paper-based Industries.

As a sponsor, this is your opportunity to spotlight your brand among the industry's leading voices, showcasing your commitment to innovation, sustainability, and progress.

Award Categories

The 2025 Paper Industry Gold Awards celebrate excellence, innovation, and dedication within the UK's Paper-based Industries. This prestigious event recognises individuals and organisations for their exceptional contributions, driving the industry forward in key areas.

Below are the award categories for 2025:

- Recycling Award: Celebrating exceptional efforts in recycling and waste reduction.
- Community Engagement Award: Recognising impactful initiatives within local communities.
- Health and Safety Award: Rewarding exemplary practices in workplace safety.
- Sustainable Innovation & Net Zero Award: Highlighting achievements in sustainability and contributions toward a net-zero future.
- Skills Award: Acknowledging exceptional skill development and training programs.
- Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) Award: Showcasing commitment to fostering an inclusive workplace.
- Young Talent Award: Honouring an individual demonstrating innovation, leadership, and commitment within the industry.

Additionally, the Paper Gold Medal Award, recognising a lifelong contribution to the industry, will be presented during the ceremony.

The event will also spotlight the CPI Papermaking Apprenticeship Scheme, as certificates will be presented to the first cohort of apprentices to complete the program.

Entries are free of charge, providing an inclusive platform for companies and individuals to gain well-deserved recognition. The deadline for submissions is Friday, 28 March 2025.
